Dear Yu Wang:

This letter confirms that you have been offered a position of Front-End Developer Assistant with Seven Buddies, Inc.

Your position will begin on February 1, 2019 and end on May 17, 2019. This is an unpaid position.

Seven Buddies Inc. is a new type e-commercial company which provides a service marketplace platform to everyone in the US. Everyone can own their own online store to sell skills and services via this platform. The credit system, safety system and task management system will make it more convenient and safer for both buyers and sellers, and the service price will also be cut down compared to the prices in physical stores. In addition, we also provide services of website and app design and development for individual business, or small-to-middle-sized companies.

As a front-end developer assistant, you can both work in your home or in the office located at 1312 Capital Blvd #103 Room 3, Reno, NV 89502. You will perform the following duties for 20 hours per week:

1. Communication and basis knowledge

During the internship period, we expect you to get familiar with all the knowledge you learned at school about website development as soon as possible. You need to get fluent in JavaScript, HTML, and CSS, also gain a better understanding of Web Technologies. As a front-end developer assistant, you will get in contact with UX/UI members and front-end developers every day. You need to practice your communication and social skills, and due to the nature of home-based work, you also need to practice time management, in order to complete tasks and communicate with mentor and other members in an efficient way.

2. Website and App Development

You will be trained on the application of some Modern Fronted Framework such as React JS, Angular, and on the knowledge of HTTP Request, such as GET, POST. After the training, you will be able to independently perform the single task or assignment about the front-end development which includes coding single page of the website, adjusting the style of certain sections, connecting APIs, testing and debugging.

You will as well receive trainings on App development. Similarly, after training, you will be familiar with the app developing code of front end, such as React Native and Marvel app. You need to practice independently analytical and critical thinking skills and you will be able to build the App following the style of design from UI team.

This opportunity is offered in conjunction with your graduate program at California State University, East Bay in the field of Master of Computer Science. Through this opportunity, you will:

1. Apply theoretical technical knowledge to practical use by assisting in coding the website.
2. Build stronger soft skills, such as communication, teamwork and problem-solving skills.
3. Reach advanced skill level and pick up new technical skills in fronted framework.
